

What is the RTCC?

The RTCC was created in June 2005 under the combined leadership of the Capital Area Council of Governments (CAPCOG) and the Texas Department of Transportation (TxDOT), Austin District. Participants on the RTCC include more than 25 agencies and organizations that are responsible for providing public transportation services, providing health and human services, or interested in the coordination of public transportation and client transportation services in the Capital Area.

Our Boundaries Encompass 10 Counties

The Capital Area is defined by the CAPGOG boundaries and includes a 10 county area located in central Texas. Geographically the area covers Llano, Burnet, Blanco, Williamson, Travis, Hays, Lee, Bastrop, Caldwell, and Fayette counties. The area is approximately 8,480 square miles and the Census 2000 population was 1,346,833.
